

The name Sinodè comes from the greek term “sinodos” which means “concert”. It stands for a working team that integrates various competencies in a multi-professional logic. Sinodè wants to match its professionals’s knowledge in order to offer a better consultancy to the organizations that work in welfare system aiming to participate at and influence market dynamics by improving quality and by contributing to the cultural debate of the field in which the client operates.

Our mission is

- to support public and private welfare organizations’s development to adjust to changing scenarios
- to improve integration’s effects between different professional competencies in order to offer a greater value to our clients
- to promote relationships between the different organizations that work in a community in order to develop local welfare systems